RACING OPENS GLORIOUSLY

CROWD OF OLD-TIME PROPORTIONS IN AT TENDANCE AT AQUEDUCT.

Ten Thousand Enthusiasts Cheer John W. Schorr' Gretna Green to Victory at Long Odds in the Carter-Jack Atkin Virtually Left.

New York, April 15.—Gretna Green, a cast-off from James R. Keene's stable that was bought by Albert Simons for $2,503, was the hero of the opening of the New York racing season today when he triumphed over high-class opposition in the Carter Handicap and carried the colors of John W. Schort to victory with the liberal price of 20 to 1 against his chances. It was just such a race as could easily bring to mind the fact that he holds the American record of 1:432 for a mile and a sixteenth.

Gretna Green was a bit lucky in his victory, for he was away to a running start, while his supposedly most dangerous opponent, Jack Atkin, was almost left at the post. Just as the barrier was sprung Jack Atkin went in the air, and he was away a bad last. He was rushed around his company to the front and, overtaking Gretna Green, ran stride for stride with that horse for six furlongs, which was as far as he could carry his 135 pounds, and he failed to finish in the money, being beaten by Alfred Noble and Far West, as well as by the winner.

The tabulated history of the Carter Handicap is

The opening of the easiern season was under decidedly auspicious circumstances, close to 10,000 persons being on hand to welcome back the thoroughbreds. It was a tremendously enthusiastic crowd. Though Gretna Green was a rank outsider, the outcome of the Carter stirred them to cheers the like of which have not been heard on a New York track since 1907. H. G. Bedwell made a good begianing in the east when he saddled two winners. Pajaroita and Myles O'Connell. The westerner told his friends that were shown, there are some that will be heard. Irom later, and today's two winners. Ladasette and Zeus, are probably both of first-class caliber. They were both saddled by Thomas Welsh and it was an open secret that they had been owking extremely well.

No trouble was experienced in the placing of wagers, though odds were not freely exposed and the memory system prevailed. The layers kept within the law and at no time was there any threat of police interference.

DETAILS OF NEW YORK HEARING.

Abbany, N. Y., April 15.—At the hearing recently given before the Codes Committee of the Senate on the Agnew-Perkins bills, J. N. Camden, a leading Kentucky breeder, declared that the breeders of the whole country would suffer if New York state passed any more drastic legislation against racing.

Ed A. Tipton, representing the Fasig-Tipton Coupany, of New York City, said that his firm did the higgest business in thoroughbred horses and trotters in the country and that its largest sales before the Hart-Agnew law was passed in theroughbred horses amounted to $1,800,000 at year, which was reduced the year the Hart-Agnew law passed to $455,000 and to $306,000 last year. He said these laws also affected the sale of trotting horses.

Algernon Daingerfield, acting secretary of the Jockey Club, said that the existing laws accomplished all that was sought by the present bills if they were properly enforced.

Joseph Auerbach, counsel for the Jockey Club, said that the bills should be amended so as to make certain that they would reach only what was intended, the professional bookmaker and the professional fluster. He suggested changes in the bills which he said would accomplish this end, but Canon Chase and Dr. Walter Laidlaw, who are behind the bills, argued that the changes suggested by Mr. Auerbach would leave a loophole for the operation of the professional bookmaker.

The sentiment of the committee seemed to be in favor of amending the bills so that private oral betting at the track would not be prohibited, though the committee feels that it may be a hard job to frame the legislation in such a manner as to make certain the elimination of the professional bookmaker.

"I do not think the committee has any sympathy with the use of official power expressly to barass."

frame the legislation in such a manner as to make certain the elimination of the professional bookmaker.

"I do not think the committee has any sympathy with the use of official power expressly to harass racing people, as has been done," said Senator Brackett, chairman of the committee, addressing the race track officials, breeders and others who were opposing the Agnew-Perkins measures. It is my belief, however." he continued, "that the members of the committee would like to eliminate the professional gambler, the man with the checkerboard clothes, whether he makes his books orally or with a record. How would you do it?" he asked J. S. Auerbach, who was present as counsel for the Jockey Club.

Mr. Auerbach replied that the bills should be framed so as to take away from the bookmaker the provisions which would make his business profitable and suggested an amendment taking out the words "orally or otherwise" in relation to bookmaking as well as the part of the section which makes it unlawful to lay odds on any future event. Friends of the bill said that such an amendment would not be acceptable.

PENSACOLA TO CLOSE APRIL 23.

Pensacola, Fla., April 15.—Society was well represented at the course this afternoon, the race in which gentlemen riders sported silks being the magnet of attraction. Genuine enthusiasm was manifested throughout, and it easily marked the record day of the meeting. Baleshed, well handled by Mr. Merritt, carried off the honors in a close finish with John Garner and Dr. Crook, ridden respectively by Messrs, Gardner and White. The winner was given an ovation and presented with a silver loving cup.

Messrs, Lyles and Middleton returned today from Jacksonville and reported they had secured promises from owners that at least twenty horses would be shipped here on Monday next. It was also definitely announced today that the racing here would come to a close on April 23.

FUTURE OF CANADIAN TURF ASSURED.

Advocates and Opponents of Miller Bill Agree Upon Measure to Regulate Racing in the Dominion.

Toronto, Ont., April 15.—Under the arrangement of dates for the season of 1910 for the tracks under control of the Canadian Racing Associations, there will be two meetings of eight days at each track. The time is so allotted that each will take in two Saturdays, leaving ample time between meetings for the journey from one place to another. The season will open at Woodbine, as usual, on the Friday before Victoria Day. The King's Plate will be run on the opening day. Montreal, Hamilton, Fort Eric and Windsor follow as in the past, and at each place nine days are allotted, so, that one will be left blank. The blank day will be decided upon later by the club interested, but in many cases it will be Monday, though some probably will make it eight days straight by opening on Friday.

The first variation from the old schedule and a welcome one is the holding of a Woodbine meeting in summer instead of fall. The second meeting of July and will include the Civic holday. Then comes Hamilton, as Montreaiers prefer September dates, while Blue Bonnets will follow Windsor, which closes on Laior Day. The Fort Eric fall meeting will close the circuit. The schedule is as follows:

Ontario Jockey Club, Toronto, eight days between Friday, May 20, and Saturday, May 28.

meeting will close the circuit. The schedule is as follows:

Yesterday's meeting was attended by President J.
E. Seagram, Sir Montagu Allan, Judge Monck and Messrs. George M. Hendrie and J. H. Madigan, and the utmost satisfaction was expressed o'er the racing outlook. The permanence of the sport is now established and the racing associations will continue their efforts to maintain it at its present height of popularity and public confidence. The different clubs will at once set about preparations for their attractions.

popularity and plante constructions.

A measure which will not be of a controversial nature will be presented to the House of Commons at Oitawa next week to cover the racing situation permanently and will receive the approval of both the supporters and opponents of the Miller bill. It will make clear the legality of speculation at race meetings on the local races and will establish the fixity of a place for the bookmakers, poolecliers or the parl-mutuel method. The privilege will be restricted to meetings of not longer than seven days duration and not oftener than twice a year, but only on existing tracks. New clubs cannot be incorporated to take advantage of the situation. The bill will also include provisions against handbooking and poolroom keeping that are expected to be effective and will prohibit the sale of betting information, whether on horse races or other events.

GALVESCA MAKES DISAPPOINTING SHOWING

San Francisco, Cal., April 15.—There were frequent upsets at Oakland today, the most surprising being in the feature race, in which Galvesca ruled an oddson favorite. She finished outside the money, while Miles, a 49 to 1 chance, proved the winner, Galvesca quit badly after Enfield raced out with her to the final sixteenth. Enfield bumped Miles and the latter retallated. Rey Hindoo was later interfered with by Enfield, with the result that he was knocked off his stride. Drawing away, Miles won from Rey Hindoo. A claim of foul was made by Molesworth, but was not allowed.

May Pink took the first race at odds of 20 to 1. No Quarter, the favorite, ran so badly with Shale up that the judges ordered the apprentice taken off the horse in the race for which he is entered tomorrow. Miss Officious was supposed to be a good thing in the mile and a quarter race, but was beaten easily by Whidden, Joseph Tigue, trainer of Miss Officions, bid up Whidden from $460 to $600, but he was retained. The Maine Stable retallated by claiming Miss Officions for $600.

Representatives of the Butte and Salt Lake City interests will confer on a proposition regarding a division of summer dates, H. I. Wilson would like to have the meeting in the Montana city precede that at Salt Lake City.

Barney Schreiber will invfte Miss Eleanor Sears, a well-known Boston heiress, who admires the thorough, owner of Ormondale Stud, to select the stallion he has announced he will present to the Canadian Breeding Bureau in recognition of the recent defeat of the Miller bill in the Canadian Parliament.

RACING GOSSIP FROM THE EAST.

New York, April 15.—Belmont Park is getting a general overhauling. The painting of the big grandstand is well under way and superintendent William A. Gorman has his complete force of employees shaping up the jumps on the main and schooling courses, leveling the tracks and attending to the numerous details incidental to the oneuling of the season. Horsemen stabling at the Westchester Racing Association's course are delighted with the condition of the mile and a half track as they are with the light, safe cushion on the mile training track. Most of the trainers at this course have changed tacties in regard to the working of their two-year-olds this season. In past years it was the custom to try out the youngsters by working them to the right, or the way the races are run at Belmont. Experience taught them the folly of this method, as the inveniles would run to the outside when making the turns on other tracks. It is for this reason that trainers Healey, Patterson, Nash, Griffin, Lawler and others instructed their exercise lads to gallop in the direction that races are run on other American tracks.

James Cottrell, who was a rider in the days when McLaughlin, Garrison and Murphy were famous, is seriously ill at Sheenshead Bay.

Trainer Silas Veitch has shipped the following horses to Baltimore from Belmont Park: Grandpa, Nestor, Rufus, Blackbridge, Clovercroft and a hunter. Veitch's cross-country racers wintered well and, although no fast work over long distances has been asked of them, they are likely to keep the Virginians busy before the close at Pintlico. April 15.—Belmont Park is getting auling. The painting of the big gran

MONCREIF HAS LADIES' DAY.

Jacksonville, Fla., April 15.—Despite the counter attraction of the opening of the base ball season at the local ball park, a large crowd turned out at Moncreif Park this afternoon. It was ladies' day and a card of seven races was provided for the occasion. Nothing much in the way of class was offered, but a majority of the races furnished good contests, with the finishes close enough to be interesting. Three favorites won.

Among the defeated choices was another of the Fizer cracks, Eye White, which was beaten a nose by Begone in a stirring stretch drive. Dennison and Griffin rode two winners each. In the fourth race a plunge was made on Wool Sandals despite the latter's showing on Wednesday last, when he was a distant trailer all the way. Trovier was substituted in place of Dreyer and Wool Sandals furnished keen contention for half a mile, but in the stretch he tired badiy and was beaten off by the leaders.

Another supposed good thing that went wrong was Ida May, a receding favorite in the third race, Ida May opened at 1 to 3 and went to the post a 3 Fe horse of Pimilico tomorrow.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Ottawa Citizen likens the late Miller bill to a proposal to cure corruption in Parliamentary elec-tions by doing away with the Parliament.

H. P. Whitney has conferred the name Borrow upon his two-year-old bay gelding by Hamburg— Forget, a half-brother to Dinna Ken, Hylas and Dreamer.

Dreamer.

It does not often occur that a jockey rides the winner of every race on the card. Such an event is reported from New Zealand, where a local horseman (Albert Whitaker) piloted the whole seven winners at the Hunfly meeting.

Minoru is reported by the Canadian Associated Press as standing at odds of 3 to 1 in the City and Suburban market. Eight to one is the price offered about Dean Swift, the topweight in the handicap. Thaleron is quoted at 100 to 8 and Sunbright at 100 to 6.

It has been decided to open the Whitney Memorial and Grand National Steeplechases, both of which are usually run at Belmont Park, and there will be a goodly array of overnight steeplechases and races for hunters for the coming meeting at that track. At Sheepshead Bay it is thought that there will be a resumption of hurdle races to be run over the turf course.

Winner—Ch. g, by Rey del Sierras—Aunt Bird (trained by H. G. Bedwell).

Went to post at 2:35. At post 5 minutes. Stari good. Won ridden out; second and third driving. PAJAROITA outbroke the others and was hustled along all the way and through the last furiong was riden hard. CAMPEON, always second best, ran in close pursuit next to the rail throughout and finished resolutely though never seriously threatening the winner. W. T. OVERTON finished fast and caught CAREOLI, tring right at the end. CAREOLI ran well and had no mishap, but was tiring at the end. DULL-CARE delayed the start and went wide all the way. COHORT showed some speed, but evidently needed the race and will improve. TRANSFORM began badly and was always outrun. The winner was entered for $1,500; no bid.

Secretched—(88655)Top Note, 110; 884582George W. Lebolt, 103; 86254 Tubal, 108.

Winner—B. c, by Adam—Shaft (trained by T. Weish).

Went to post at 3:06. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same, zeus, never far from the leader, saved ground on the elbow and came on in the stretch like a good one under a vigorous ride. WHITE WOOL set a fast nace and tired, but hung on gamely at the end. AGAWAM showed speed and will improve. SCRIMMAGE was in close quarters in the first furlong, but hung on well at the linish. RUSTICANA was never a contender. ISABEL CASSE swerved to the outside on the clow and lost several lengths, began slowly and was never a contender. HERMETIC is a rapid beginner and showed speed. LULA ran poorly.

Scratched—SSI2 Easy Life, 106; Oakdale, 102.

Overweights—Agawam, 1 pound; Isabel Casse, 3; Hermetic, 1.

Winner—Br. g. by Ben Brush—Runaway Girl (trained by A. Simons).

Went to post at 4:08. At post 3 minutes. Start poor. Won easily: second and third driving. GRETNA GREEN broke well from the outside and was rushed to the front, cutting off the others; then set the pace to the stretch and, after racing Jack Atkin into defeat, came on again and won with speed to spare. ALFRED NOBLE was always a close contender, saved ground all the way and finished resolutely, but seemed just a trifle short. FAR WEST made up ground steadily and, finishing with a game rush, would have been exceed in a few more strides. JACK ATKIN went up in the air at the start and was almost left, was then cushed around on the outside in the first furlong and, taking the lead on the stretch turn, set the pace to the last furlong, where he tired badly. PRINCE IMPERIAL, away badly, had little chance, but closed a big gap. KING COBALT was shut off and crowded back right after the start. NEALON began slowly and seranced—86584*Beson, 109; (86236)Quantico, 97; 88720 Arondack, 92; 886563Cur. Fishers 100.

Winner—B. f, by Disguise—Ladasine (trained by T. Welsh).

Went to post at 4:32. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. LADASETTE, a very smart filly, made a show of her opponents all the way, began fast and at no time was in rouble. ONAGER ran a bit green, but always outfooted the others, went wide on the elbow and will improve with racing. NAUGHTY LAD showed speed and finished resolutely. WHIN began slowly and closed a gap in the last furlong. SUPPLE had no mishaps and was outrun to the last furlong where he closed up some ground. SYLVAN DELL showed speed early, but quit badly. UNCLE FRED was pinched off after the start and had no chance. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.
